

“Handsomely photographed and powerfully argued . . .
an arresting portrait.”

— Ann Hornaday, The Washington Post

“An absolute must-see.”

— Don Schwartz, CineSource Magazine

LIVING DOWNSTREAM

A FEATURE DOCUMENTARY BASED ON THE BOOK BY SANDRA STEINGRABER, PH.D.

This award-winning documentary film follows ecologist and cancer survivor Sandra Steingraber during one pivotal year as she travels across North America, working to break the silence about cancer and its environmental links.

Purchase the Living Downstream
Educational DVD today.

$115 USD* for Single High Schools or Small Organizations (<10 staff)

$295 USD* for School Boards, Universities, Libraries or Large Orgs (>10 staff)

* Please add $15 for shipping and handling

The Living Downstream Educational DVD is now available for purchase.

Created for use by educators, nonprofit organizations, and community groups, this two-disc set contains two versions of the film (85 minutes and 55 minutes) and a range of bonus features. Purchase of this DVD gives you and your group the right to screen the film publicly for educational or nonprofit purposes.

Disc One

- Living Downstream
Feature-Length Film (85 minutes)
- Scene Selection
- Bonus Features
 - Single Scene Index
For playing a single scene during a presentation or discussion.
 - Scene Compilations
Scenes grouped thematically for specialized screenings.
 - Film Trailer
 - Mini Docs
Short documentaries using new interviews, footage, and graphics to explore select topics in greater depth.
 - Audio Commentaries
Featuring author Sandra Steingraber, director Chanda Chevannes, editor Nathan Shields, and director of photography Benjamin Gervais.
 - Written Guides
Link for downloading the electronic guides, Living Downstream ~ In the Classroom and Living Downstream ~ In the Community.

Disc Two

- Living Downstream
One-Hour Version (55 minutes)
- Scene Selection

The Educational DVD also comes with access to the following written guides:

Living Downstream ~ In the Community

For nonprofits, community groups, and professionals seeking to engage individuals in the topic of cancer and the environment. Designed to help individuals and organizations raise awareness and inspire action, this guide is a comprehensive resource for holding screenings, training screening organizers, leading workshops, and creating grassroots campaigns.

Living Downstream ~ In the Classroom

For educators who wish to use the film in their teaching. Filled with lesson plans, discussion questions, assignment ideas, and student handouts. Designed to encourage critical thinking and community engagement, this guide was produced in collaboration with educators.

The guides are currently in production and will be available for download and shipping in the coming months.

To order online, visit:

www.livingdownstream.com/dvd

To order with a purchase order, send your PO to:

Chanda Chevannes, The People's Picture Company
1522 Davenport Rd., Toronto, ON, M6H 2H8 Canada
Email dvd@livingdownstream.com Fax (647) 342-2867

We apologize for any inconvenience, but the Living Downstream Educational DVD is currently available in the United States, Canada, and New Zealand only. A Home Video DVD for individual and family use will be available for purchase in 2013.